The Washington State Commission on Hispanic Affairs seeks to fill one commissioner vacancy. The commission serves to advise the Governor, the legislature, state and local agencies on policies and practices that affect the Latino community of the state.

Interested candidates are encouraged to visit the Commission's website at <http://www.cha.wa.gov/>.

Current Commissioners reside in Bellevue, Bellingham, Othello, Seattle, Spokane, Vancouver, Olympia, and the Tri-Cities. The Commission is seeking a representative from the Yakima Valley.

All Commission members are volunteers. Travel reimbursements are provided for Commission business. Terms are for three years (with an opportunity for a second three-year term). Commissioners are expected to attend six meetings a year, typically held on Friday afternoon and Saturday mornings, which are held every other month throughout the state. Additionally, Commissioners are involved in substantive committee meetings and are expected to locally represent the Commission through involvement with the Latino community.

Those interested may apply by submitting a letter of interest, a resume and a Board application to: Commission on Hispanic Affairs, P.O. Box 40924, Olympia, WA 98504. Persons may also complete an electronic application, which can be found at www.governor.wa.gov/boards/boards.htm. Please send all electronic information via email to: hispanic@cha.wa.gov. All requested information must be received by August 20, 2004.

Please call the Commission if you have any questions about the Commission or the application process: 1-800-443-0294.
